

From Helsinki Airport to Original Sokos Hotel Presidentti / Hanken School of Economics

The Original Sokos Hotel Presidentti is easily reached by taking the airport train to the Helsinki Central Railway Station. The train departs from the airport terminal and the journey takes about 30 minutes. Both trains I and P to both directions take you to the Helsinki Central Railway Station. The train ticket is 4.10 euros (zones ABC) and can be purchased at the ticket machines on the platform, at the convenience store R-Kioski, or on the HSL mobile app. Please note that the tickets cannot be purchased on the train, so make sure to purchase your ticket before boarding the train. The Helsinki Central Railway Station can also be reached by bus from the Helsinki Airport. More information on the public transport connections from the airport can be found here.

The hotel is located about 700 meters from the railway station and is easiest to reach by foot. When exiting the railway station through the main entrance, first turn right on Kaivokatu street, then right on Mannerheimintie street, and finally left on Arkadiankatu street. After about 200 meters, the hotel is on your left. See the map below.

If you are travelling directly to Hanken School of Economics from the airport, take the airport train to the Helsinki Central Railway Station. From the station, you can either walk (about 1 km) or take tram no 2 from in front of the railway station (direction: Pasila as. via Kamppi) and get off on the Hanken stop, located in front of the university. The ABC ticket is valid on the tram too.
